RJD Case Referral Criteria Checklist

When deciding to refer a case to the restorative justice diversion (RJD) program, it must meet ALL of the following criteria:

- If RJD did not exist, I would absolutely charge this case
- There is an identifiable person harmed
- This case is at least one of the following (check all that apply):
  - Burglary
  - Assault/Battery
  - Vehicle Theft
  - Grand Theft/Theft of Person
  - Theft
  - Robbery
  - Arson
  - Other serious crime involving an identifiable person harmed
- This is not a vandalism case
- This is not a shoplifting case
- This is not a graffiti case
- This is a felony and/or high-level misdemeanor case
